

SERVING OTHERS

IDEAS > for little ones <

- Tape quarters to the quarter machines at a store.
- Hand a candy cane and a "thanks for all you do" note to the worker at the post office.
- Bake cookies with your kids and run them out to the garbage collectors when you hear them coming (Baking sounds like work? A bag of kisses™ works great!)
- Pick up litter at the park.
- Leave a card and a treat in your mailbox for the mail carrier (or run that out too so they can put a face to your name & address).
- Open the door for the person in front of you.
- Deliver food straight from your pantry to a food bank.
- Donate outgrown clothes, or better yet, toys!
- Have your kids take some money out of their piggy bank and put it in a Salvation Army collection bucket.
- Visit shut-ins (your church may have a list of those who could use a visit) or people in a nursing home.
- Pass out candy canes in the waiting room you're in.
- Bring a neighbor dessert.
- Hug someone who is sad.
- Stuff socks with supplies and give to homeless.
- Give hand warmers to the shopping cart collector.
